MR. C. G. CARLISLE, Superintendent

SUPERINTENDENT BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Under the direction of Mr. C. G. Carlisle, the Board of Trustees has been eagerly working to make constant improvements in the Tamalpais Union High School District. These are the men who are responsible for the expansion of Redwood, Drake, and Tam. They realize the need for more high school facilities in ever expanding Marin and they strive to meet the demands of the present and the future. After extensive studies of many proposed areas, they have purchased three new high school sites in Tiburon, Laginitas, and Marin City. The members of the board have given their time to the improvement and expansion of education. They believe in our school and in the students, but most of all they believe in our public school system. The students heartily thank these fine men for all they have done in helping Redwood build toward its goal.

ADMINISTRATION

The phenomenal growth of the Redwood Giant was vividly apparent this year with the addition of two new classroom wings, the expanded library, the Little Theatre, and the "C.E.A." But there was another even more important growth recorded at Redwood in which the Class of '63 played a significant leadership role. That was the growth of the Redwood spirit in the hearts and minds of all of us. This class has continued to demonstrate the Redwood tradition of striving for excellence in scholarship, citizenship, and student participation which has become the hallmark of graduating classes at Redwood High School. For their contribution of high achievement to these vital areas we express our gratitude and appreciation. To the members of the class of '63 we extend our best wishes for the future, and we hope they will remember us and return to visit us as often as time and circumstances will permit.

SPRING OFFICERS

ROW 1—Carol Briedenstein, Secretary; Buffy Cooney, Treasurer. ROW 2—Randy Keller, President; Gary Jimenez, Vice President.

Leadership, optimism, and advancements in the area of citizenship were the key notes of the graduating class of 1963.

With the advent of Senior Privilege Cards, 130 Seniors found themselves setting a new tradition to be followed by future graduating classes. Another achievement was Redwood's newly created Senior quad, which was made into a sanctuary for Seniors.

Victory was the theme set by the Senior Class as hundreds of spectators gathered on Thanksgiving Day to watch the Varsity Football team under the captainship of Senior Jim Troppman, defeat the Indians of Tam. Capabilities as young aspiring thespians were exhibited by Seniors when the two theatrical events were presented in Redwood's new Little Theater. These two events were "Taming of the Shrew" and the musical "South Pacific."

During winter months the class was led by Don Rogers in the office of President. He was aided by Randy Keller, Jill Lerner, and Ann Rowland who were Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer respectively. Then as frost melted Randy Keller assumed the post of class president with his new aides for spring term. They were Jose Jimenez, Vice President, Carol Breidenstein as official note taker, and Buffy Cooney as Treasurer.

FALL JUNIOR OFFICERS

The Junior class of 1962-1963 was a class well equipped with originality, leadership, spirit, scholastic ability and ambition. The year began with cupcake sales to raise money to finance their float for Spirit Week. "Give 'em the Blade," the original theme of this spirited class won first place in the inter-class competition and added ten hard-earned dollars to the class treasury.

The class had a unique money-making idea when they let "Slough Goons" overrun the school. Such slogans as, "They're coming soon, bring money to pacify them" will be remembered by the many Redwoodites who boldly purchased the fuzzy little stuffed animals.

At Christmas time the Juniors converted their hall into the world of the Grinch. "How the Grinch Stole Christmas," was the theme chosen by the Juniors to wish the student body a Merry Christmas. Again they won first place in the competition and added money to the class treasury.

The Sophomore Class officers of 1962-63 ably carried on the work of last year's Freshman officers in rallies, sales, and activities.

Representatives from English classes met to plan and organize such activities as lollipop and cupcake sales. The proceeds from the lollipop sale were used to sponsor the giving away of a team-autographed football. For Christmas the Sophomores sold mistletoe and decorated the main stair-way with a theme fitting the twelve days of Christmas.

This year Sophomores also infiltrated varsity sports, playing ably on the varsity basketball and baseball teams.

The fall officers were Tim Frost, president; Eleanor Watkins, vice president; Meg Gentes, secretary; and Jim Hallett, treasurer.

Elected as spring Sophomore officers were Mike Russell, president; Dave Wagner, vice president; Joan Troppmann, secretary; and Donna Durney, treasurer.

SPRING FRESHMAN OFFICERS

Betsy Klein, Treasurer; Lucia Blakeslee, Secretary; Tom Sather, President; Drummond Pike, Vice President missing.

This year's Freshman class showed great enthusiasm as being high schoolers. They started off the year with a great deal of energy to be like the others by first learning how to push their way through the hall. The Frosh Christmas Hall this year was a big success with the decorations being of funny characters portraying Christmas. The Freshmen spent many hours on this hall and at the Frosh Dances, which were held throughout the year.

When the first semester ended, some Freshmen met the requirements for the C.S.F. and Honor Society and applied for membership.

With Bill Niccolls, President; Dave Strathairn, Vice-President-Barbara Jones, Secretary; and Sue Vanderhoof, Treasurer, this year was very successful. At the semester they were succeeded by Tom Sather, President; Drum Pike, Vice-President; Lucia Blakeslee, Secretary; and Betsy Klein, Treasurer.

LOG STAFF

Busy hands moved quickly over the typewriter keys preparing copy and heads for the 1963 LOG. When students walked past the door of room 282 during first period, cries of "Do this layout over!" "Type this copy!" and "Check this spelling!" could be heard. New and different ideas were put into the LOG such as the school's emblem on the cover and the "Remember Whens" in the advertising section.

This year twenty pages were added to the LOG. The twenty pages enlarged the book from 180 pages to a total of 200 pages. This enlargement was due to the increased number of students.

Senior, Virginia Scott, was editor-in-chief of the 1963 LOG and Miss Pat Pendergast was the LOG advisor.

The LOG staff consisted of: Editor, Virginia Scott; Seniors, Bev Breithaupt, Shirley Harris, Lillian Dittli, Nancy Ingram, Sue Lenci, Bill Epidendio, and Larry Schwerdt; Juniors, Tina Peterson, Anne Murray, Steve Mock, Pat Clark, Melinda Megarity, Joanne Olson, and Gary Artoux; and Sophomore, Tom Minnes. Handling the gigantic task of putting together the advertising section was Junior, Linda Foster.

Featuring full coverage of campus events, interesting editorials, selected feature stories, columns and sports was the main task of the 1962-1963 Redwood Bark Staff.

Under the leadership of Toni Banducci, editor; Jill Lerner, assistant editor, and the advising of Mrs. Carol J. Neumeier, the staff worked hard to try and put out a school newspaper of high caliber and journalistic excellence. Each of the newspaper's leaders, including John Contos, sports editor; Ken Goodreu, circulation manager; Bev Breithaupt, exchange editor; and Janet Poppin, business manager; had specific duties to be carried out.

A new addition this year was the Redwood Student News Bureau, under the leadership of Senior Louise Abbott. Members of the beginning journalism class sent stories to all the Marin County newspapers and as a result, Redwood has the largest news coverage of any other high school in Marin County.

Members of the staff "Ham it up" after a busy week.

ORPHEUS

Redwood's literary magazine, Orpheus, went into its fourth publication this year. Dedicated to displaying student literary and art work at Redwood, Orpheus first appeared in 1960.

This year, faculty advisor Mr. Harry Davis selected senior Terry Chambers as the magazine's editor. Another senior, Edie Henrich, was named assistant editor. Ten other Redwoodites comprised this year's student staff.

Work displayed in Orpheus includes essays, short stories, poems, sketches and prints. Members of all classes are encouraged to submit work to the magazine. Some pieces are also submitted by English teachers.

Working toward a mid-April deadline, Editor Chambers and his staff selected the best of the material submitted and Orpheus IV was made available to Redwood students early in May.

Orpheus is a fine group effort and gives Redwoodites a valuable opportunity to display their literary and artistic talents.

Terry Chambers, head of Orpheus Staff.

ART CLUB

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

Striving toward its two primary goals of a finer appreciation for artistic craftsmanship and working with others for the benefit of all, the Redwood Art Club went into action soon after the beginning of the school year and selected its officers. They were Pat Clark, President; Fran Adams, Vice-President; and Anne Woodward, Secretary-Treasurer. They scheduled speakers and field trips to exhibits in this area. Discussions were held as to the possibilities of a mural for the new library wing as a future Art Club project.

The club was advised this year by Mr. Wallace McDonald, head of Redwood's Art Department.

This year's Program Committee began by sponsoring many competitive as well as united student-body activities. It was headed during the first semester by John Contos and in the Spring by Ali Massoumkhani.

The committee's basic job is to coordinate all student functions throughout the year. They started by planning Spirit Week. It included such events as Crazy hat day, successive days on which black and red were worn, the Tam funeral death march, and the elections for Spirit queen. During the Redwood-Tam football game on Thanksgiving Day they sponsored a float contest with the best entry receiving ten dollars.

All through the year the committee planned soc-hops during noon time in the gym with live music provided by the Casuals.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY SELF-GOVERNMENT

The Legislative Assembly of Redwood High School consists of the elected officers of Redwood; the student body president and vice-president, the president and vice-president of each class, the head of self-government, and the head of the Student Court.

The Legislative Assembly passes and puts into action laws such as: no littering on campus, walking on the wrong side of the stairs, causing disturbances in the building during lunch hours or at rallies, or damaging materials on display on bulletin boards and walls. It also defines the student privileges, including the senior court, canteen lines, and rally privileges. Serving as the advisor was Mrs. Neubauer.

The self-government committee is the organization which, together with Student Court, enforces the constitution of Redwood High School.

Student Court is run like an ordinary court of misdemeanors, headed by judges who hand down the court's decision. Defendants may have representation during a court session by bringing in a student "lawyer" to present the defendant's case.

Court sessions this year were held once a week during both lunch periods and were headed by Chris Secor, fall semester Student Court head. Phil Weil was the fall semester head of self-government committee and Warren Glass headed the committee during the spring semester. Clifford Terry was the spring semester head of Student Court. Advisors to the two student government organizations were Charles Kurtz, self-government, and Joe Sullivan and Bill Wilkinson, Student Court.

Started in 1961, the Inter-School Relations Association, is made up of Redwood, Novato, Terra Linda, Drake, San Rafael, and Marin Catholic High Schools.

The I.R.A.'s goal is geared toward the improvement of inter-school relations.

Redwood senior John Osborn, served as Fall semester president this year and under his term of office, the first I.R.A. conference was held. The conference was held at San Rafael High School and was attended by 108 students from the various local high schools. The students met in discussion groups to exchange their ideas and discuss their problems together. The conference was said to be a great stride in the right direction toward reaching the main goal of this fine organization.

During the Spring semester Chris Secor was president.

Triangles, rectangles, formulas, and slide rules are among the mathematical devices familiar to members of the Redwood Math Club.

Formulated three years ago, the Math Club has attracted many interested students during that time. Under the guidance of the club's advisors, Mr. Neylon and Mr. Glandon, the club members attempt to disprove mathematical paradoxes and to solve other problems of a more advanced nature.

The president for this past year was Junior John Burke. The Math Club lends its support to students who wish to participate in the local Science Fair. The members have also been on field trips, have had guest speakers to talk on specific facets of mathematics, and have worked on projects within the club itself. In this way the club has encouraged the study of mathematics in various fields and has demonstrated to the members some of its practical uses.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club was formed in 1958 and in the last five years has enlarged its activities. The original purpose of the Science Club was to increase the members' understanding of the various phases of science. Field trips were taken to the University of California, Richmond Field Station and to the California Research Corporation. The club sent one of its members as a representative to the Northern California Junior Science Symposium.

LAB ASSISTANTS

Driving down to the supermarket to purchase the required order of eighty-five Lamb's brains for the class dissection or uncrating and unpacking the necessary instruments from their nests of popped popcorn are among the varied duties of the selected group of Lab Assistants. They busy themselves by assisting the various teachers in the chemistry, biology, physics, or physiology departments by preparing experiments and demonstrations, making slides for the science classes, and then clearing and cleaning the materials for further use, and assisting in the correction of assignments. These assistants are under the direction of Mr. Johnson.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

One of the better means of extending library services in the school is through a library assistants' group. The work-experience offers many opportunities and challenges to the student as well as presenting a situation for the development of good citizenship.

The library assistant's work concerns itself with the circulation and shelving of books, the care of periodicals and newspapers, the processing of materials, reference assistance, clerical work and many other details directed by Miss Mildred Mateer, Redwood librarian.

A.F.S.

A.F.S., or The American Field Service, is a foreign exchange program for high school students.

Redwood Senior, Don Rogers, spent a month in Athens, Greece, and Senior, Virginia Scott, attended a school in Toulon, France, for one semester.

Also under A.F.S., Helene Uddgren came to Redwood from Stockholm, Sweden, and Ali Massoum-khomi, who is Redwood's spring vice-president, came from Tehran, Iran. Each of these foreign exchange students came to spend one academic year here learning many of our customs and trying to familiarize us with the ways of their countries.

School Affiliation Service involves the partnership of two schools. On June 27, 1961, Redwood became affiliated with Volksoberschule Preetz, a school in Preetz, Holstein, Germany. S.A.S. is designed to help students get acquainted with foreign students' schools and lives. Each year we not only exchange students, but also mathematics, art, and history collections.

Our exchange students under the S.A.S. program, for this year were Mat Schmidt, visiting the United States from Germany, and Patty Lesko, traveling from Redwood to Preetz.

One of the big highlights of this program was the S.A.S. conference, held in the Redwood library, on Saturday, February 2, 1963. Schools from all over the bay area participated in this program.

Tim Minnes, Matthias Schmidt, Tim Frost.

E.I.L.

The Experiment in International Living is open to all junior and senior students who have a genuine interest in the world, both near and far from home. Several students are chosen each year to travel abroad for a summer under this valuable program. For one month, each student lives with a foreign family. After this four week "homestay," they travel aboard for another month with a group of other Experimenters from different places.

The program is primarily aimed at college students and young people up to the age of about thirty. However, in the past few years, the program for high school students has opened up with fine results.

REDWOODETTES

PHI LAMBDA SIGMA

Debbie Hart, Louise Ross, Jo Black, Allison Lynch, Gayle Souza, Lydia Golz, Sherrill Perry, Beth Stanton, Jodi Covington.

Phi Lambda Sigma, Redwood's honorary language society, is sponsored by Miss Wingard and Miss Baynard who initiate enthusiasm for dinners, speeches, interest in languages, fund raising, and interest in other lands and peoples, foreign or American.

The students in Phi Lambda Sigma must maintain at least a "B" average and be recommended by their language teacher. Membership is something to be honored because of the exclusiveness of this club.

This year Phi Lambda Sigma has, as honorary members, our three exchange students, Helene Uddgren, Ali Massomakhani, and Matthias Schmidt.

Redwood's drill team, the Redwoodettes, were newly formed this year under the direction of Miss Jerri Slifford. Almost every day after school one could see these energetic girls practicing their routines for the coming game. The organization was small, but they have provided a strong foundation for the years to come.

The Redwoodettes had originality and entertained the spectators at each football game. Each girl made her own outfit, which consisted of a grey jumper, red blouse, red tights, and pom-poms.

The Redwoodettes should be commended for their fine performance at each game and for the important part they play in Redwood's school spirit.

ROW 1—Don Keller, Pete Holter, John Osborne, Bev Sadler, John Contos, Pete Noyes, Albin Dittli.

The Activities Council has played an important part in planning and coordinating the activities at Redwood during which exchange students and returnees were invited to participate the past year. The members included were the Student Body Vice President; the commissioners of Finance, Elections, Social Activities and Public Relations; the Vice Presidents from the four classes; and the Presidents of all the clubs and societies at Redwood.

The council was responsible for seeing that the projects planned by one club or committee did not interfere with those of another organization.

Members of this year's International Club continued to express their enthusiasm and interest in fostering the development of International relations. The program, planned by elected officers with assistance from their sponsor Mr. Robert Mautner, emphasized the support of the three student exchange programs represented at Redwood.

Opportunities for the expression and exchange of ideas were provided by means of picnics and other gatherings at which exchange students and returnees were invited to participate. The highlight of the year's activities was an A.F.S. Hospitality night attended by all visiting students from Marin County.

Phi Sigma Sigma, the Frosh-Soph Girls' Service Club at Redwood, was formed two years ago. In the past two years it has done many important services both here and abroad. It is for all Freshman and Sophomore girls who have a C+ average or above.

Under the leadership of Carolyn Cochrane, President, and their new advisor, Mrs. Koss, these girls work to support a family in Greece.

This service club has certainly done a commendable job in bringing help to needy people in America and in foreign countries and has earned the respect of all Redwood.

The officers of Phi Sigma Sigma are, Carolyn Cochrane, president; vice president, Poppy Eager; secretary, Chris Bergren; and treasurer, Ann Hughes.

Maintenance of lights, scenery, projectors and broadcasting equipment were among the various activities of the stage crew this year.

A new innovation this year has been the broadcasting station set up in the C.E.A. at lunch time. Noon Tune Control, as it is called, plays records brought in by students and makes dedications. This operation is carried out by three aspiring disc jockeys each lunch period.

Don Irely is sound technician for all the rallies held in the gym. Seeing to it that the Little Theater is A:OK falls as the responsibility of Eric Torney and his aids. Mr. Broemmer is the guiding hand that oversees the whole operation.

ROW 1—Don Irely, Ken Goodreau, Eric Torney, Bill Heath, Larry Koontz, Ben Selfrige, Kit Warne, Christopher Mosden, Roger Lawrence.

This year, several trips had been planned for the skilled skiers by president, Bill Wardwell and advisor Miss Myrna Reed. These trips included such places as Mammoth, Yosemite, and the Sugar Bowl.

The first trip to the Sugar Bowl was called off because of the lack of snow, but it was rescheduled and it turned out to be a full adventure for the skiers even though a few mishaps occurred during the trip.

The officers this year who made the Ski Club such a success were President, Bill Wardwell; Vice President, Ed Bingham; Secretary, Sue Spiller; and Treasurer, Lynn Diamond.

The speaker began, "To sum it all up, I have found politics very intriguing and rewarding. Thank you for permitting me to talk with you." With this the meeting was adjourned and a small group gathered around the guest. The political club had been in action again.

Although they have been in existence little more than a year, the members of the political club have been busy constantly. Through their efforts a continual schedule of activities has been provided for both the student body and the club members themselves.

Opportunities were offered by the club to exercise their knowledge on all facets in the wide field of political science and to learn at the same time.

The club president was Marc Rappoport and the faculty advisors were C. J. Jones and Wendall Ames.

STUDENT SPIRIT COURT COMMITTEE

Student Court is the judiciary branch of Student Government. Redwoodites accused of violating the laws set down in the Redwood Constitution are subject to trial by the Student Court. The person charged with an illegal act is called before the Student Court and asked to plead "guilty" or "not guilty". If the student pleads not guilty, he is entitled to a trial by jury.

Chris Secor was appointed fall head of Student Court by the Student Body President with approval of the Legislative Assembly. John Jurvig was appointed assistant head. Spring head was Cliff Terry. Student Court advisor this year was Mr. Charles Kurtz.

At times when most students had gone home, working diligently after school were members of the Spirit Committee. The only other students around were football, basketball, baseball, or track participants practicing for an upcoming game or meet. Loud voices could be heard, as you gazed at the students splashing colors on posters or making spirit ribbons.

This committee had an unlimited membership, it was soon one of the most popular organizations in the school. Heading the fall contingent was senior Bill Wardwell. Under his direction, ribbons, posters, and a spirit week were part of the football season.

Taking over in basketball season as head was Milt Waters.

FALL YELL LEADERS

Bill Wardwell, Steve White, Al Pike, Rick Wynne.

Cheering the student body on to a very successful 1962 football season were Fall yell-leaders Alan Pike, Steve White, Rick Wynne, and head yell-leader Bill Wardwell. Under the guidance of these four seniors, Redwoodites cheered their Giants on to their third Marin County Athletic League Championship. Using many catchy yells and intricate routines, they spurred the students to a typically spirited season.

Working side by side with the yell-leaders, the Fall song-leaders added color to the already colorful spirit. Entertaining the student body during rallies with well-executed routines and leading the songs at all the football games were Barbie Koons and her group of: Lexie Sifford, Janet Rigsbee, Jo Jennings, Sandy Gray, Cappy Cahill, and Lisa French.

The best example of the kind of spirit that these two groups promoted could be seen at the Thanksgiving Day Redwood-Tamalpais game. They helped to keep and improve upon Redwood's tradition of card stunts, spirit ribbons, and the enlightening of Spirit Week.

Attending plays, poetry readings, and other cultural events are activities enjoyed by the members of Redwood's English Club. In the past year the members have seen a modern play entitled "The Glass Menagerie," attended a poetry reading by "Brother Antonius," and previewed parts of a play presented by the Actors' Workshop of San Francisco.

The English Club, although defunct last year, was reorganized last semester by advisors Maurine Ballard and Elaine Young. Membership in the club is comprised of honorary members, seniors, and associated members, juniors. These two membership divisions were created because of the large number of students who applied for membership in the club.

Club meetings are held twice a month at the home of Miss Ballard and Miss Young where the members in attendance read and discuss selected short stories and poems. Because of the club's large membership, only honorary members were invited in to every club meeting. Associate members were invited in small groups. However, Miss Ballard and Miss Young hope that next year every member of the club will be allowed to attend all club meetings.

Tabulating returns, compiling percentages of class participation, and announcing the results of voting is the job entrusted to Redwood's Election Committee. Under the watchful direction of Bev Sadler, commissioner of elections, the committee aids the student body in voicing their choice for office through a democratic procedure.

Many long hours were devoted to planning the days on which elections could be held and checking off voters who cast their ballots. Another function which the election committee carries out is guarding the boxes in which Redwoodites place their choices for student office.

During the past year the Finance Committee has been under the direction of Albin Dittli, Commissioner of Finance, and Mr. Cook, advisor. Duties of the Committee include selling tickets at all of the home athletic contests, including the Redwood-Tam Thanksgiving day championship football game. Members of the Finance Committee have worked behind the counter of the student store during the year, have kept the financial records up to date, have informed clubs of their financial status and have spent many hours in debate over next year's budget.

CHOIR

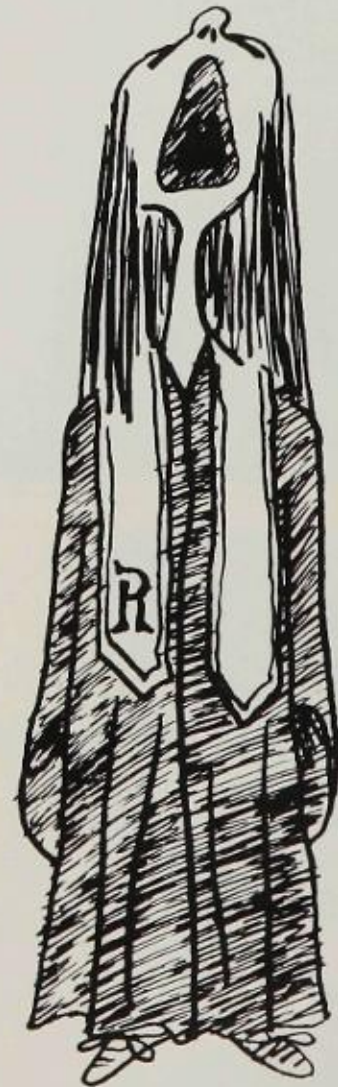

Choir assembles for dress rehearsal before their big performance.

During the beginning of the year, something very exciting was taking place at Redwood, something that had never happened here before . . . the production of a musical. It was Rogers and Hammerstein's famous "South Pacific." The task was a tremendous one and was successfully undertaken by the choirs, under the direction of C. Arthur Wigell. Their success was proven by the capacity crowds and Mr. Kreps extended two additional performances for a total of six.

"South Pacific" was a starter for a busy year of activities. No sooner had the show closed than the choirs presented an outstanding performance in the Christmas Concert.

On February second, 40 students participated in the Pacific Music Festival of the College of the Pacific and Stockton. In May, they performed in the State Music Festival, where last year they received an excellent rating. To climax the year they sang in Redwood's annual Spring Concert and at Graduation exercises.

Membership in the Varsity Letterman Club is obtained by lettering in a Varsity Sport. This year the Letterman Club sponsored a donkey basketball game which was the biggest fund-raising event of the year. The faculty won this year by a score of 28-24.

Jim Troppmann was president of the Varsity Letterman Club during the past year and was assisted by vice-president, Steve Solinsky. Tom Gladney was secretary, and Dave Lindsey was treasurer, while Larry Koontz was sergeant at arms.

The Red Cross Club was one of the most active service organizations at Redwood this year. Under the direction of two co-chairmen, Virginia Rothrock and Andrea Stockton, the club worked in many fields of service.

They began the year with a membership drive in October. Around Christmas time they sponsored instrumental concerts for several Marin hospitals, directed by band leader, Tom Graefe.

After the Christmas holidays, the Red Cross Club began working on a project which they called a "Friendship Chest," which was to be sent to our sister school in Preetz, Germany.

Through the hard work of all its members and with help from Mrs. Nelson, faculty advisor, the Red Cross Club served the school and community with many projects.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach Troppmann and the Redwood Giants reign as the kings of Marin County football. The Giants in winning the 1962 Marin County Athletic League title have amassed a five year record of 20 wins and 4 losses against league opponents, four district championships, and three M.C.A.L. titles.

The 1962 Giants, led by captains Jim Troppmann and Steve Minutoli, won the coveted M.C.A.L. title by defeating Tamalpais 20-14 on Thanksgiving morning before a record crowd of 9,500 screaming fans.

All-League honors went to seniors Jim Troppmann, Doug Houston, Steve Solinsky, and juniors Dennis Schunk and Dave Auerbach. Troppmann was also voted to represent Marin County as the "Hall of Fame" selection and Steve Solinsky won the Senior Scholastic Award.

Redwood opened league play against the Novato Hornets after the Giants had a dismal practice season—three losses in a row to Riordan 7-14, Montgomery 6-13, and Oakland 0-26. The Redwood-Novato game was a difficult defensive battle but the Giants finally won by a 6-0 score with Quarterback Jim Troppmann scoring the only touchdown in the entire game. Defensive play by three junior linebackers—Dennis Schunk, Steve Minutoli, and Joel Wallace—was a deciding factor in this first Giant win.

Redwood's Giants battled the "Green-men" from Drake down to the wire scoring Redwood's second league win of the 1962 season. Senior Jerry Rumsey scored the first touchdown of the game running a full 60 yards with a punt return. Then after a 6-6 battle for three quarters of the game, Jim Troppmann connected with end Doug Houston with a 40 yard pass that was stopped on the three-yard line. With 30 seconds left in the game, junior halfback Dave Auerbach skirted left end and scored the winning touchdown boosting the score to Redwood 12, Drake 6.

The fighting Giants, with two wins under their belts, marched on to victory over San Rafael's team winning 14-0. Highlights of this game were the return of senior fullback Steve Solinsky to the Giant lineup, and tremendous defensive playing that limited the San Rafael Bulldogs to only 50 yards rushing and three yards passing. Doug Houston, Joel Tobiason, Rich Klein, Jim Carroll, Bob Scheffer, Larry Pierroz, Jeff Teather, Dennis Schunk, Steve Minutoli, Joel Wallace, Dave Lindsay, Jon Little, and Jerry Rumsey all played a very important part in the Giant's defensive play. Solinsky and Jim Troppmann scored the only two touchdowns of the game and Troppmann kicked the two extra points giving the Giants the 14-0 win.

The Redwood Giants scored their fourth league win after dominating Terra Linda's Trojans 20-0.

Junior Dave Auerbach scored on two runs of 48 and 25 yards while junior Dave Cox scored on a 40-yard open field run. Cox also did most of the Giant punting during the 1962 football season.

During the first half of the Redwood-Marin Catholic game, the Giants scored 24 points to the Wildcats' zero. Giant reserves played out the second half of the game scoring another six points for Redwood. Highlights of the game were junior Dave Auerbach's tying of a school record scoring three touchdowns in one game, and the tough Redwood offense.

Redwood and Tamalpais entered the Championship game with identical records of five wins and no losses in league play. The scene was set for the greatest prep game in the history of Redwood. Nine-thousand five-hundred fans were on hand that Thanksgiving morning to see the Giants come twice from behind to "upset" the favored Indians and win Redwood's third Marin County Athletic League championship in four year. Quarterback Jim Troppmann threw two touchdown throws to ends Doug Houston and Joel Tobiason, scored another TD on a quarterback sneak, and also kicked two extra points. Troppmann was voted "Prep of the Week" as a result of his efforts. The blocking of Steve Solinsky, the running of Dave Auerbach, Jerry Rumsey, and Dave Cox, and the professional playing of the Giants defense were all contributing factors to the Redwood Giants' success.

At the conclusion of the Big Game, Giant coach Bob Troppmann had praise for his assistant Coach Al Endriss and Duncan Mac Swain and called the season a "team effort" on the part of every coach and player on the Redwood Giant squad.

Redwood High School Varsity Basketball 1962-63 Scores

The Giants started the season "green as grass" with only two returning lettermen, Kit Bricca and Hillard Witt. It looked like a long season for Coach Hart's troops.

After winning only two of the first nine games the hoopsters rallied and behind the good shooting of Dave Auerbach and Tom Bly the season ended at a 500 clip, winning 13, losing 13.

The Giants won seven of their last 10 games. Larry Herst and Bob Piro paired off at the guard positions. Hillard Witt and Jim Halm were the strong rebounders and Tom Strathairn and Don Bly alternated with the starting forwards.

Many different combinations started the games. Jim Carroll topped the scorers in the Poly game, Larry Wolfe carried the offense load in the early games, and Don Rogers played good ball during the league tournament at Christmas time.

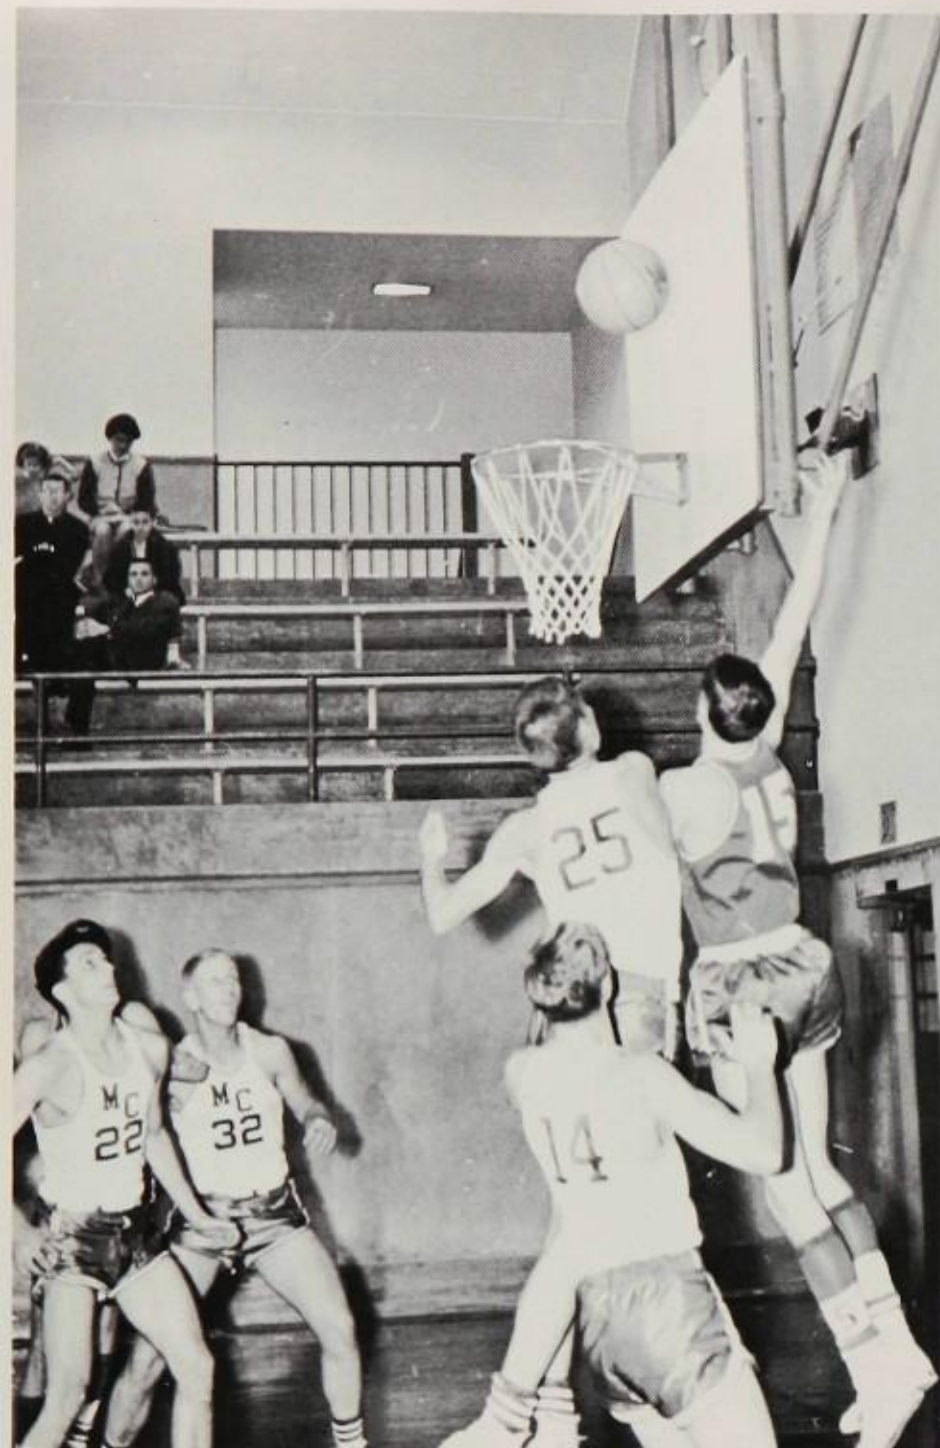

The high spot of the entire season was when the Giants ended the San Rafael Bulldogs by 53-51 after having been defeated by them 66-32 during the Christmas tournament.

An example of the team play was shown when it was discovered that all twelve members of the squad had enough playing time to be awarded their letter. And, looking forward to next year, we find there will be ten lettermen, the most in Giant history, welcomed back by Coach Hart. They have the makings of a championship team.

To cap the season the team was feted with a banquet at Dominic's Restaurant on March 6. It was a fine evening. Those especially honored were Don Rogers who was awarded the scholarship trophy and Kit Bricca and Hillard Witt who were elected co-captains by their teammates.

This year's edition of the Redwood Giants is the youngest in the team's history.

The squad is composed of 5 seniors, 7 juniors, and 6 sophomores. The team is led by two three-year veterans, Jim Troppmann and Terry Jarcik. The latter was an all-leaguer last year and is expected to repeat his performance this year.

Many faces are missing from last year's team that finished second in the league and had an overall record of 15-9. Sophomores Jack Baglietto, Don Poole, Scott Murphy, Tom Gootherts, Pat Puccinelli, Bill Kilcoyne, along with seniors Steve White and Kit Bricca and junior Steve Minutoli will carry the lead this year.

The Giants finished the first half of the practice schedule with a 2-2-1 record. The outstanding game was against Oakland where Scott Davi pitched a 2-0 shutout.

In their first Marin County League game, Redwood defeated Novato 5-4 in 10 innings.

The future looks bright in Giantsville, with young juniors and sophomores and the junior varsity and frosh teams.

SPRING YELL LEADERS AND SONG LEADERS

The two girls and a boy rose as the Giants sunk another shot. "O.K., now, let's really hear it!" The three Freckles were at work again.

As Redwood's Spring Yell Leaders, Chele Galloway, Twinka Thiebaud, and Milt Waters, upheld the fine reputation established by all the previous groups. Under the leadership of Milt Waters, their vigorous yells served as a stimulant for both the basketball team and the student body. Urged on by their constant "Yell loud", students did just that.

Accompanying the yell leaders were the Spring song leaders. Just as the yell leaders led the cheers, so did the song leaders do their part by leading such things as the alma mater and the fight song. The well-planned routines entertained the students during the rallies. This is what Marsha MacMillan, Lynn Keeler, Sue French, Donna Schneider, Sue Bagley, Ann Rowland, and head song leader Belinda Sifford did throughout the year.

ORCHESTRA

CONCERT BAND

Orchestra makes use of the Little Theatre for winter concert.

ORCHESTRA

In its second year of existence the Redwood Orchestra participated in various musical activities including Orchestra Day at the College of Marin, the Pacific Music Camp in Stockton, the PTA Christmas Program, and the Winter Concert. The Orchestra also toured several of the local elementary schools, played in the Spring Concert, presented several invitational assemblies and played at the graduation of the Class of 1963. Several members of the Redwood Band and Orchestra also played in the Marin Youth Symphony, and the College of Marin Band and Orchestra.

The Redwood Pep Band is completely organized and directed by the students. It was the Pep Band that appeared at the rallies, basketball games, and this year at all football games except the Tam game. They met outside of school time and received no credit. Each year the Redwood Pep Band appears at more functions than any other musical organization in Marin County. The student director this year was Tom Graefe during football season. Another Redwood "first" during basketball season was the selection of Julia Shew, the first girl to lead the band.

The half-time buzzer sounded at the Redwood-Tam game and Senior, Bill Nelson led the Marching Band out onto the field. The Thanksgiving Day crowd that cheered them on was said to be the largest ever assembled for such an event in Marin County.

Some of the highlights of the year included the Winter Concert, the All Marin County Band Festival, and the Band Tour, at which the Band played for the elementary schools in our district. Other activities in which the Band participated were the Spring Concert, the A.F.S. Tam District Band Festival, and several invitational assemblies in the Little Theater.

Bill Nelson, poised, is ready to lead the marching band at Tam game.

That Feminine Touch...

...is what they needed in 1879 when men were telephone operators. Men lacked the patience, pleasantness, and eager-to-help attitude of the females and were soon replaced. Today at Pacific Telephone the operator's job is one of the most interesting and important careers for women. Whether you're interested in long distances, fact-finding information, or just plain people—you'll find it as a telephone operator. If you qualify, Pacific Telephone will train you with full pay, and you get regular raises. Now's the time to talk about your future by seeing your vocational counselor or visiting our employment people at: 140 New Montgomery, San Francisco; 445 Bush St., 3333 - 25th St., 2148 Broadway in Oakland.
